

i disagree that if one uses VP-100 is limited to use sorensen's video relay services.

i have a d-link and i am able to choose any video relay services which is exactly the democracy in america.

there is no reason to have 2 (two) devices in order to be able to use any other video relay services AND sorensen.

thank you